(By Havas Agency)

Paris, Jan. 17th—The project attributed to the Emperor William for a general disarmament is again being discussed with some degree of insistance. The French press is opposed to the adoption of this scheme, and advises the Government not to agree to any such chimerical idea.

Rome, Jan. 17th—Yesterday was the anniversary of the death of Oberdank, and was marked by a great manifestation in his honour by the students of this capital. There were plenty of irredentistic speeches, but no rioting, the police having no occasion to interfere.

Montevideo, 17th.—Fernando de Torres, Alcidas Montero, Rosendo Otero and Laudelino Vasquez are said by the Razon to form the new Cabinet.

The cyclone yesterday caused considerable damage. The zinc and wood roofing of the Central Station was blown away. Trees were torn up by the roots in the suburban quintas. In the port, only one boat suffered. It simply turned over. The boatman luckily escaped.

CONGRESS.

SITTING OF THE SENATE.

THE DEBATE ON THE FINANCIAL BILLS.

SENATOR ROCHA'S SPEECH.

MINISTER LOPEZ'S BELLICOSE REPLY.

THE BILLS PASSED IN GENERAL.

A SENSIBLE HARANGUE.

A PRECEDENT.

NO QUORUM IN THE DEPUTIES.

THE DIVISION.

At 9 a.m. sharp the Senate met yesterday, Dr. Derqui in the Chair. The Minister of Finance was present. The order of the day was immediately taken up, and Senator Rojas, as informing member of the financial committee, ushered in the Bills in a short speech. The eloquent Senator maintained that the tremendous crisis in which the country was plunged sprang from manifold causes. There were real causes which were within the grasp of the financier and economist: the Bills before the House dealt with the real causes. There were, however, other causes, of a moral order, intimately connected with the turbulent character of the people, the political passions of partizans, and an insane opposition to and distrust in the Government: to deal with these moral causes the people must come forward and give to Government the full output of public opinion; patriotism must conquer distrust and opposition. Months ago he had ventured to say, when similar bills were presented to the Senate, that all financial measures would prove ephemeral if the terrible moral causes at the root of the crisis failed to be eradicated. His prophecy had proved true: for to-day again the Senate was called to discuss new bills to meet the aggravated requirements of this unfortunate crisis. He did not doubt the great ability and lengthy experience of the Minister of Finance; nothing could be urged against the Bills of the Executive, for they were the very best for the critical situation; but the Minister's genius and experience and the financial bills of the Government would be baffled, as long as political passions blinded the people and created distrust.

Senator Rocha begged to protest against the haste with which these bills were being pushed through the Senate. He wished to repeat, and more emphatically, all he had stated in the previous sitting. He could not dwell at length on the subject under discussion, for it was absurd to expect anybody to master the serious questions in 24 hours. The study of such transcendental measures required time and industry; a close examination and minute compilation were necessary to enable a legislator to cast his vote on questions which might at no distant date be criticised under overwhelming responsibilities. Senator Rocha opined that he at least could not conscientiously give a vote pro or con in these vital matters under such circumstances. Not to mention the danger of rushing through laws of the present gravity, the folly of such haste had been evidenced in the succession of measures and of financial plans sanctioned of late years. Had the requirement of the situation, the means of grappling with the crisis, been discussed calmly and at length from the outset, the country might have been spared the sight of a Congress voting successive failures to deal with the country's finances. More than a year ago he had thought of proposing the very economies now asked by the Minister; but no time was then granted, the bills were rushed, just as to-day, and a whole year has been lost in grasping at shadows.

Turning then to the so-called moral causes of this great crisis, Senator Rocha very wisely remarked that fresh burdens and contributions were not likely to remove causes that were rooted not so much in political passion and opposition as in popular disappointment, discontent, and general misery. Political passions were subordinate to patriotism: he had on a memorable occasion given a vote of confidence to the late Government in order to legalize "clandestine" issues of paper money: that vote had been exacted by patriotism, at a time he was a foe to the Government. "Errare humanum"—nobody was infallible and he questioned the figures of the Committee and the Government. It might be possible to retrench on a far greater scale. The Committee had failed to supply him with the details of all economies effected by the Government. Economy was the royal road to prosperity. It might happen that possible economies had been overlooked, for instance in the army, to mention one public department. Far better to resort to economoy than to unbearable taxes. What might not be the unfortunate results of the excessive taxation proposed in those bills! A Socialist movement was on foot—a social revolution was very different from a political revolution—a change of men could settle the latter, but where would the former stop? Social movements of this kind were an infirmity that gnawed at the vitals of a nation. Legislators and Governments should be cautious and exercise great tact in the voting and enforcing of taxation. It was well to pause before such momentous issues. The eloquent Senator then showed the absurdity of reckoning taxation per capita; to get at such a ratio we must calculate the capital of a country, the distribution of that capital, the proportion of taxation to wealth, etc. These sound doctrines were forgotten, and some people were apt to jump at the conclusion that Argentines were lightly taxed. The Senate was asked to put burdens on production, to still more enhance the cost of living, to enormously increase the price of articles of prime necessity, such as ordinary wines, etc. Not satisfied with such a policy, the Government actually aimed at accumulating reserves by fresh taxation, as if the situation of the people were favorable for such an operation. He asked his colleagues to look at the deserted streets of Buenos Ayres. He did not propose to suspend payments, but he did not rush to see the country bow to the imposition of creditors, for the withdrawal of 15 million dollars per annum from the circulation he looked on as imposition. He deprecated the barbarous taxation proposed in the Bills; such taxation, besides being unconstitutional, would bring great disasters. The measures would prove negative, and he felt certain that ere long the Government would again apply to Congress for fresh measures and submit new financial plans. We were all on the wrong track—the right word was rigid Economy.

Senator Rojas answered briefly that the Bills were a month old and that if Senator Rocha had cared he might have availed of that time to study the Bills. The Committee had studied them thoroughly but could not extend the study into a fresh examination of the Budget. He thought that the Senator for Buenos Ayres exaggerated the fears of any socialist movement: luxuries only were taxed heavily, the same as in other countries.

Senator Tagle then made the old pillars and walls of Congress shake with the thunder of his ponderous rhetoric. The speech was a very heavy encomium of the Minister's financial genius and a loud applause to his policy. As the periods of the eloquent Senator pealed from pillar to pillar, reverberating as he reclined back in his chair, the gallery applauded slightly.

Minister Lopez then opened fire on Senator Rocha and came down upon his arguments with horse, foot, and artillery. H. E. said that if any man were or should be cognizant of the causes of the crisis—that man was the Senator for Buenos Ayres. Given all his antecedents, Senator Rocha was part and parcel of the deplorable causes of the crisis: he knows it, or be ought to know it. These statements the Minister emphasized with energy and in a nervous pitch of voice. Senator Rocha's fears of social disturbances, H.E continued, were puerile; he had failed to produce one single argument against the new taxes. He had indulged in generalities, fanciful fears and abstract principles. 'Senator Rocha may rest assured that, whatever doubts may arise in his mind owing to his more intimate knowledge of the many causes that led to this crisis, the present Government will carry out its programme to the letter. There need be no fears about the accumulation of reserves to the amount of 45 millions through the annual withdrawal of 15 millions from the currency." The Minister continued more or less in this strain, until, strange to say, he waxed to boiling point when, questioning what interest Senator Rocha attached to economies in the army, H. E. wished to know the cause of this sudden interest in the Army. The present Government needed an armed force, like every other government in the world. The present Government, furthermore, enjoyed the confidence of the whole country.

After several unsuccessful attempts at interruptions, for the Minister is deaf, especially when he does not care to listen, Senator Rocha, pale with excitement, informed His Excellency that he had misinterpreted his statements, for he had not for a moment questioned the good name and intentions of the Government. He begged, however, to protest most energetically against the covert insinuations of the Minister. He had had nothing to do with the three years of previous Government; everybody knew that all that time he had been travelling abroad. He did not care to credit the Minister, for whom he had a great esteem, with any malicious insinuations, all the more aggravating and unpardonable coming from a man in such a high post as a Cabinet Chair. It was the dismal fate of public men in this country to be the victims of slander, but this was a unique instance of the kind when the echoes of slander pealed from a Ministerial bench.

The Minister begged to repeat that the present Government enjoyed the confidence of the whole country, because all were convinced that every man in the Cabinet represented honesty, equity, and retrenchment. The causes that brought on the crisis were not born of the present Government. The Bills sent in to deal with that crisis were the best that could be framed, and the financial committees of Senate and Deputies had applauded and recommended them after a most careful study and analysis point for point. The published report of the Senate Committee was most minute and should satisfy the most exacting investigator.

The Bills were then put to the vote and approved in general.

The Stamp Bill was then taken up in detail. All the articles and clauses up to the 2 o/o tax on bank deposits were approved.

As the honorable gentlemen were taking up the Bank Deposits tax an adjournment was moved, and after a ridiculous and desultory discussion and succession of divisions as to when the House should meet again, it was resolved that the Senate should sit again at 4 p.m.

When the House resumed, Senator G. Cortes, the representative of Cordoba the learned, rose, and in a long and elaborate speech in which more than one expression and more than one idea led us to the belief that the Honourable member was at some time in his long life an assiduous student of Jeremy Bentham, inveighed against the tax on the ground that it was unconstitutional, unnecessary and impolitic. The speech was economically a thoroughly sound one, and we regret that its length and the pressure on our space prevent us from printing it now. However, on another occasion, we hope to be able to give at least a full resume of this remarkable harangue.

Senator Galvez then pointed out that the model Republic of the World, the U. S. of America, had itself set a precedent as regards the taxation in question.

Another adjournment now took place.

After the adjournment which lasted a few minutes, Senator Rocha made an eloquent attack on the tax: another Senator supported him. The 2 per cent tax on private banks' deposits was put to the vote and carried against four votes. The result of the sitting was the sanction of the Stamp Bill from beginning to end.

The Deputies were to have met yesterday afternoon, but, after waiting in the precincts of the House for about eighty minutes without being able to form a quorum, they were obliged to separate without the transaction of any business.

ANOTHER MESSAGE AND BILL.

The Executive sent the following message to Congress yesterday:—

Animated by the necessity of reducing as far as possible the expenses of Government, the Executive has ordered reductions in the existing Budget amounting to 10,769,296 dollars for the year, and has likewise directed a reduction in salaries and in civil and military pensions in the proportions laid down in the Bill hereunto annexed which represents a further saving of about 850,000 dols.

In drawing up this measure, the Executive has endeavored to interpret the dominant opinion of Congress when the general Budget for the present year was voted, but which could not then be put into shape owing to the exigencies of time, and, as the measure requires the sanction of Congress, and ought to be actually in operation at the present moment, it has been decided to submit it for the consideration of the present extraordinary session of Congress."

BILL.

The Senate and Deputies, &c.—

Art. 1.—The decree of the National Executive, dated the 27th November last, establishing a reduction of the salaries of all civil and military employees in the following proportion is hereby approved: 5 per cent on salaries between 100 dols. and 200 dols. per month; 10 per cent on salaries exceeding 200 dols. per month; 20 per cent on the salaries of the President and his five Ministers.

Art. 2nd—Let this be communicated, etc.

JUST BEFORE THE BATTLE.

THE CHILIAN SITUATION.

(From the Chilian Times.)

Valparaiso, Jan. 3.

The past week has been prolific in alarms and all kinds of sinister rumours. Had all the latter been fulfilled we should have had by this time half a dozen riots, and a revolution in full swing. Happily, so far, none of these dire prognostications have been verified. Nevertheless, the prospect is by no means cheering. The negotiations we briefly referred to in our last accomplished nothing in favour of a peaceful termination of the quarrel between the Executive and Congress. They were not, however, altogether without result. They have shown pretty clearly that the restoration of friendly relations between the Executive and Congress is next to an impossibility. Neither side appears to be disposed to make any concessions to the other. They are, in fact, suspicious of each other. The Executive mistrusts Congress, and Congress mistrusts the Executive. Each appears to be afraid of becoming the victim of the treachery of the other. It is a lamentable state of affairs, and if, unfortunately, it should be protracted much longer it cannot but be productive of calamitous results. It is a humiliating position for the country to be in. Only a few months ago, Chile was cited as the model republic of Spanish America, and the idea of internal trouble being possible would have been scouted as preposterous. Now, however, revolution is spoken of as a matter of course, and nobody appears to be able to realise the consequences of an appeal to the arbitrament of the sword. If the calamitous results that must necessarily ensue from an appeal to arms to settle the actual dispute between the Executive and Congress could be brought home to all, and especially to the rising generation, people who now talk so lightly of revolution would think twice before plunging the country into all the horrors of fratricidal strife.

We believe, and have all along believed, that true patriotism could find a way out of the present serious difficulty, and it is because we entertain this belief that we still cherish the hope that the danger with which the country is menaced may be averted. Moreover, so strong is our faith in Chilian patriotism and Chilian sound common sense that we shall continue to cherish this hope, until it is absolutely useless to hope any longer. Before we relinquish all hope of a peaceful solution of the actual difficulty between the Executive and Congress "a first shot must be fired from Fort Sumter." It may be that our love for the country may lead us to hope as we could wish, but, be this as it may, we find it difficult, nay, impossible, to believe that Chilians will consent lightly to trample under foot the blessings of internal peace and the brilliant record of progress and advancement of the last thirty years. Our contemporary, the Ferrocarril, has made several patriotic appeals to Chilians to exert themselves to procure a peaceful solution to the actual conflict between the Executive and Congress, and would that its counsels might be listened, to. The Chilian Times too—at a humble distance it may be—has supported the Ferrocarril in its patriotic endeavours, and if, unfortunately, our appeals should meet with no response we shall, at least, have the intimate satisfaction of knowing that we have fulfilled our duty to the country according to the dictates of our heart. We remember, with certain misgivings, that at the conclusion of the war, a Peruvian in a spirit of wounded patriotism and pride, and perhaps of bitter scorn and spite, predicted that together with Peru's nitrate and guano Chile would inherit Peru's curse of fratricidal strife. Chilian patriots of every degree! It is for you to decide, at this momentous hour, whether or not this vaticination shall be verified. It is for you to decide whether the glorious standard of your country shall continue to embrace all Chilians as brothers of one family in its ample folds, or whether it shall be torn to shreds and tatters in fratricidal strife. The issue is in your hands, and God grant that you may be guided aright.

The news received yesterday was that President Balmaceda has outlawed the fleet, by which measure he expects the foreign war-vessels will prevent a blockade.

It is stated that when the revolution broke out, the Government had 4 million dollars in hand.

The fleet have vigorously blockaded all the nitrate ports. The Government derives 30 millions from the duties on nitrate.

It is expected the foreign ministers will order war-vessels to prevent a blockade by the outlawed fleet. If so, President Balmaceda has completely checkmated the revolutionary party.

As there are no state-banks in Chile, the Government, if it need money, will have to issue paper.

THE ROSARIO CONVENTION.

GENERAL MITRE PRESIDENT.

DR. B. IRIGOYEN VICE PRESIDENT.

On Friday night the Rosario convention proclaimed General Bartolome Mitre candidate for the presidency of the Republic and Dr. Bernardo Irigoyen for Vice-presidency. The result, we may say, was anticipated by the public. It would be difficult to find two better men. However, it must borne in mind that these candidates are proclaimed by the Union Civica. The voice of the other party has yet to be heard.

Rosario, 17th.

The echoes of last night's proclamation in the Olimpo Theatre are still ringing in the ears of the public. The assembly presented a solemn and imposing aspect, there being over one hundred members of the convention present. The galleries were filled with distinguished spectators. The streets leading to the Theatre were illuminated, and crowds of people gathered in the vicinity anxious to learn the results of the meeting.

Before the members took their seats, arrangements were made so as to avoid all useless dispute as to the candidate for the vice-presidency. Names were withdrawn and all obstacles to the election of the most popular candidate removed. Drs. Del Valle and Alem were the first to cause their names to be eliminated from the list of aspirants to the vice-presidency, and it was soon made evident that the almost unanimous voice was in favor of Dr Bernardo Irigoyen.

As Cordoba sent two deputations it was found necessary to draw lots for the formation of one deputation. This was done without any fighting.

The voting then began and shortly afterwards the chairman proclaimed the results:—

For President—Genl. Bartolome Mitre, 105 votes (out of 111).

For Vice President—Dr. Bernardo Irigoyen, 97 votes.

The theatre shook with applause on the reading out of the results, and soon the crowds outside began to cheer.

The police neither killed nor arrested anyone.

Proceedings were closed this evening with a Te Deum in the Parish Church.

ARGENTINE FINANCE.

"HERE'S A STATE OF THINGS."

To the Editor of the STANDARD.

Sir,

At last we have some data to work upon—some figures from which to estimate where the country, at present, financially stands. The report of the Financial Committee to be submitted to the Senate tomorrow morning (if that august body meet, for a storm is threatening and the streets may be wet!) is very instructive reading. It is a long time since I gloated so over a mass of figures; and, if you will grant me permission, I will give your readers the benefit of my two hours' incubration. I confess to a strong partiality for figures; they are not nearly so dry as many people make them out to be.

Well, in the first place, in dealing with that gold surplus of 4 millions odd, why does the Committee talk of converting it into currency (paper) at "100 per cent premium." Is the arbitrary assumption of 100 per cent premium for gold an ingenious, but disingenuous, way of conveying that such a price may be looked for during the current year? And does the Committee "honestly" expect gold to be quoted at only 100 per cent premium this year? If so they are mighty sanguine men, and don't realise in what a quagmire the finances of the country really are. Now, would n't it have put a better face on things if the conversion of the gold surplus had been based on to-day's market price of gold, 230 per dent premium? Which leads us to the curious and startling reflection that a "high gold premium" suits the books of the Minister of Hacienda better than a low one, and better than none at all! But of this, more anon.

Let us analyse, for a moment, the Budget of 1891, submitted by the Committee and compile one of our own. "Ordinary Expenses," which I take to cover salaries, army and navy maintenance and so on are set down at forty seven million dollars, paper; not a shabby allowance, by the way, for governing five million souls. True, it is proposed to reduce it, at one tremendous "golpe" by nearly twenty-five per cent—an eloquent admission, surely, as to past extravagance: but let that pass. There is another item under "Expenditure," the burning of shinplasters fifteen million dollars;" an operation which it is proposed to perform annually. Do not smile; the committee, no doubt, really means it; but we will, if you please, leave it out of our calculations—for obvious reasons.

"Income" is estimated at twenty-six and a half million dollars, paper; made up of fourteen millions and a half under the existing regime of imposts and twelve millions from proposed new taxes; an increase, by the way, at another "golpe" of nearly one hundred per cent. How much of the additional twelve millions will be actually realised we will not stop to inquire. If Minister Lopez knows anything of his business, which I, along with many others, am sadly beginning to doubt, he must know that taxation, like frost, produces contraction. But let that pass also. Granting the full additional twelve millions, we arrive at an income of twenty-six and a half million paper dollars, against an expenditure of forty-seven millions. How is the consequent deficit of twenty millions and a half to be met?

Why, says the committee, partly by retrenching expenditure to the tune of eleven and a half million dollars; but this retrenchment together with the (un-) "burnt shinplasters," we will relegate to the region of good intentions, and only deal with existing figures.

Now, Sir, the deficit is to be made good out of the surplus in the gold estimates which we will now proceed to examine. Gold "income" is estimated at 26 million dollars, made up of 22 3/4 millions, present income, and 3 1/4 millions from proposed new imposts. Expenditure is 18 1/2 millions. There is thus an excess of income over expenditure of 7 1/2 million dollars gold. Convert this at 300, and it yields 22 1/2 millions paper, or more than sufficient by 2 millions to cover the paper deficit as above estimated. Convert it however at 200, the figure, for some inscrutable reason, adopted in the report, and it yields only 15 millions, or 'less' than sufficient, by 5 1/2 millions. With paper at par, the deficit is 13 millions. Truly "Here's a state of things;" "Here's a How d'ye do?" "Here a pretty mess." I would n't be Finance Minister of the Argentine Republic for sixpence, or even twice that amount. For look at the matter from another point of view. Suppose that by the end of 1893 Minister Lopez or his successor shall have succeeded in working paper up to par, what sort of show will the Budget of 1894 present?

Something like this, from the Committee's own Report:—

Income.

Customs duties etc	22,720,000
Proposed new do	3,340,000
Stamps, taxes etc	14,445,000
Proposed new do	12,110,000
	52,615,000

Expenditure

Ordinary Expenses	47,000,000
Int. on debt etc	22,252,000

or a deficit of nearly 17½ million dollars, which, of course, the suspended payment of interest on the Foreign Debt during '91, '92 and '93 would cover. But what of '95 and '96 and '97, and thereafter? It may certainly be argued that with the paper at par, the item of 47 millions for "Ordinary Expenses" would be proportionately reduced. But I strongly doubt it: official fingers don't let go so easily. And be it remembered that I have excluded the question of the redemption of shinplasters and the Cedula muddle, the settlement of both which will involve millions more. Upon my word, drastic as are the remedies of Dr. Lopez, they will not, I fear, cure the malady; not only because they are conceived (some of them) in malice and founded on singular errors of judgment and just principles of finance, but also because they do not show an income sufficiently large to cover the country's commitments.

Everything depends on the use that is going to be made of the three years' respite granted by the European creditors. If that respite be merely made the occasion of another merry dance, similar to that of 1889, there will be a terrible reckoning at the end of '94. But if advantage be taken to settle grimly down to business; to cut down working expenses to a minimum; to institute stern enquiry into where all the dollars have gone, on which the country has now to pay such a heavy yearly sum in interest, or to make the rogues disgorge; to gas less about "patriotismo" and "honradez," and work more; to set the ball rolling patiently, and not fly into tantrums because another loan doesn't come along in six weeks; to see that peculation and corruption are driven from high places—then there is some hope that in five years' time the country may be, I will not say prosperous, but in a fair way towards prosperity.

Depend upon it the goose that has been laying the golden eggs—Europe—is in a terrible temper, and will not take to her nest again for many a long year. Even poor Chili, the one redeeming feature hitherto about South America, has gone wrong; and the last link in the chain of European confidence in South American stability has thus been snapped. The outlook is about as blue as it can possibly be.

I am etc.

And 10 per cent for every 20 points rise over the last-mentioned level. A similar proportion would be observed in reducing the tariff should gold fall—a very remote possibility.

The cost of the Chumbicha Catamarca Railway built for account of Government by Messrs Lucas Gonzalez and Company is £543,000, which the contractors receive in bonds at 80 per cent. These bonds are of the 15 million railway loan authorized by law in 1888.

The La Plata authorities and the National Government have arrived at no decision yet in regard to the application of the Western Railway for privilege to import material duty free.

The Chilian Government has accepted the tender of Messrs Schneider and Co. for five freight and five passenger locomotives, one metre gauge, with Westinghouse brakes, for 63,500 francs each for the former, and 56,000 francs each for the latter. The engines are to be delivered in running order, within eleven months.

The Director of the Public Works' Department has informed the Executive that the section of the Bahia Blanca North Western from kil. 0 to kil. 175, at Bernasconi station, is fit for public traffic, provided that the orders referred to in the Inspector's report be carried out.

From the report presented to the Public Works' Department it appears that the charges made by Engineer Keravenant against the Inspectors of the works of the prolongation and branches of the Central Northern are quite without foundation. The report in question formulates certain charges against Engineer Keravenant who has been suspended.

Mr. C. Lockwood, the representative of the Santa Fé and Cordoba Great Southern Railway, has asked the Minister of the Interior for permission to open the section from Venado Tuerto to La Carlota to the public. The stations, too, are all finished as far as Canales with the exception of the La Carlota station.

The Public Works' Department has submitted for the approval of the Executive the draft contract with Don Carlos Maschvitz for the construction of the line from the Parana to Monte Caseros granted by concession in November, 1889. This concession enjoys a guarantee of five per cent on a maximum kilometric cost of $27,000 gold.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Yesterday was like a railway or bank chairman's speech to his shareholders—windy. The rain appears to have been general, and so purified and braced the air that the National Senators all slept like tops and were able to tumble out of bed at cock-crow and be in their legislative seats at the appointed hour, before breakfast. See another column for what they said and did.

A row is expected in Mendoza to-day or to-morrow. One of the Ministers refuses to resign, and the Governor is determined to make him. So the quarrel stands.

Mitre and Irigoyen are the men for the Civicos. It is all settled. Rosario is 'on fete'; flags, flowers, rockets and pretty girls everywhere. Meanwhile a pamphlet has been issued by the other side against the nominees of the caucus; but this won't spoil them.

The Chilian Times says:— "We regret to announce the death on the 28th ult., at Huasco, of Mr. John H. Craig. The deceased was a native of Dumbarton, and came to this coast upwards of forty years ago, and he had resided in Huasco for something like thirty-five years. Few men on the coast were better known or more highly esteemed than Mr. Craig, and his death, which occurred after a brief illness, will be lamented by a large circle of friends. He leaves a widow and two sons and three daughters, and several grandchildren to mourn his loss.

Another large importing firm has been caught in a big smuggle in the soft goods line. Times are not quite so soft as they used to be for those engaged in the contraband line.

The shareholders of the Rio Negro Salt Company dined last night at the Rotisserie Florida to wish a pleasant voyage home to our friend Mr. Robert MacKill, who leaves for England on Wednesday the 21st inst., after a short sojourn on the Banks of the Rio Negro Salt Lakes. The principal object of Mr. MacKill's visit to the Argentine Republic was to make a personal inspection of the salt works, and to report on the route of the railway which the company will shortly construct between the salinas de Piedras and Port San Blas, and to inaugurate the export salt trade from the Argentine Republic to Australia.

Many racing men left last night in the Eolo for Montevideo to win or lose on the International race down there to-day. Some of the Argentine horses were caught in the storm while going down on Friday night, and were much knocked about.

There was a terrific revolution scare in Plaza Independencia in Montevideo the other day, caused by a regiment that had just arrived from the departments marching into the Plaza, shouting for President Herrera, whom they were going to salute and serenade. The people thought it was a revolution: patriots bolted, women screamed: doors and shutters were closed and there was a general scare for ten minutes, after which things settled down.

Another concert and dance at the Tigre Hotel is on the cards for to-night. The Tigre is the gayest place in the country at present.

We thank Messrs Peretti and Pastagalli for favouring us with the nice Calendar for 1891 issued by Scott and Bowne of New York, proprietors of the famous "Emulsion" remedy for "all the ills that flesh is heir to." The Calendar can be had free, at 840 Rivadavia.

The Defensa del Pueblo seems to have plunged straight into the hearts of the public, as it has already increased its size.

The great Koch secret is out at last, and the wonderful remedy is nothing more than essence of boiled bacillus (not "bacalao," if you please, printer) mixed with glycerine. The question is, will the bacillus supply hold out? Mrs Malaprop says there is no danger of bachelors running short.

The news from Brazil is that the Lottery there has been knocked on the head by Congress, and our recent distinguished visitor Bocayuva has left the Cabinet for private life.

We received the following note yesterday:—

"Dear Sir,

"As many will doubt the statement made by "Old Subscriber in your valuable paper of 16th inst., you will oblige me and at the same time further the cause of justice by inserting these few lines—

"I can vouch for that story, for I was there at the time and saw it myself. "Old Subscriber" may remember me when I tell him that he who writes this is no one other than the once famous "Dynamite Dick, the Death-notch Destroyer of Gory Gulch."

B. Aires, Jan. 16th

There is a queer dispute now going on in Ayacucho. The Mayor wants to stop the ringing of the church bells, as it distresses the patients in the hospital: the parish priest won't hear of such a thing, much less fork out the numerous fines imposed on him; and the matter has been referred to the Government at La Plata.

Judge Fizarro has just decided against the Ensenada Railway and Alpabatet Tramway in the action brought by Mr. Joseph John Vernio against them for killing his son in a smash at Tres Esquinas. Mr. V. demanded 50,000 dols.; but the court decided that the young man was only worth 10,000 dols., with 2,300 dols. more for costs.

A deputation of National engineers visited the San Isidro Brick Factory on Friday by invitation of Mr. Medici. They seemed to be very much pleased with what they saw.

The young cyclone we were all sighing for on Friday made a dash at Montevideo and knocked about roofs, sheds, old walls, trees, boats, hats, etc. in the usual style, but did not kill anybody. Kind cyclone.

There is a terrific storm in a teapot, or rather in a "mate" cup, now raging in that most fashionable of suburbs, Moron. The details are too intricate for ordinary minds to master without a month's hard study; but the main feature of the case is that somebody has been playing Oliver Cromwell with the Municipality, and there is a free scrimmage (bloodless so far) all round.

The "largest tax-payers" again refused on Friday to listen to the siren summons of the City Fathers to meet them for a talk on that now, alas! too fashionable subject, taxation. The Lord Mayor has paternally appealed to them to be kind enough to turn up to-morrow.

In spite of the bad times, the gay and festive Chief Magistrate of this city has turned his mind to Carnival, and has named a Committee of "recinos" to work up the preparations, on the understanding that the Municipality is not to contribute even a red cent to the foolery. It is to be hoped that the citizens at large will adopt the same wise financial course, in which case the city will escape the silly infliction this year of grace and crisis.

In Montevideo there is some mild joking going on in reference to the portfolio of Worship being incorporated with that of Foreign Affairs. We must say that, to our mind, the F.A. portfolio is quite as good and sedate company (perhaps better) for that of Worship as any other in the Cabinet.

The finest Sheffield cutlery in town is to be had at 571 Calle Lavalle. Just drop in and have a look at it.

The Immigration returns for the first fortnight of this month show the unpleasantly slim figure of 1303 bodies and souls; and it is made slimmer (to vanishing point) by the doleful fact that the emigration beat it by 2627!!! This turning of the tables is the more remarkable as there is a good demand for hands in many parts of the republic: but the premium on gold and Cato's terrible taxes outweigh all this and fan the exodus. Not a few people now say that in a few months time, if the fresh taxes are put in force, the flight of people from the country will not be confined to the foreign working classes, but will extend upwards. We greatly fear that this forecast will prove only too dismally well founded; and that events will knock the legs from under Cato, the Rothschild Committee and the whole lot of quacks round Argentina's sick bed.

Microscopy has got things down so fine that it is able to display in mastodonlike proportions the teeth of a mosquito. There are twenty-two of them, eleven each above and below, at the front end of the creature's bill. If science devise a way to chloroform the mosquito and pull his twenty two teeth, Humanity will be grateful.

Max. O'Rell, in one of his recent lectures, told how, while he was giving a lecture some time ago in Banffshire, after he had apologised to his audience for murdering the Queen's English, a burly fisherman came to comfort him with an assurance that no apology was needed; for, said he—"You speak English aboot as weel's oorsels!"

At Stuttgart a sensation has been caused by the publication, by Dr. Seybold, reader to the Emperor Dom Pedro, of an MS. on the Guarani language, dated 1718, by the Jesuit Father Restivo. This most interesting literary production shows that the Jesuits considered Guarani a superior language to Greek.

The new "Preservative Cart" for carrying meat, invented by Mr. Mendizabal has proved on trial to be a success. The old regime cartmen expressed their opinion of the innovation on Friday at the Corrales by treating the new vehicle to a volley of stones, smashing the glass ventilator with which it is provided.

The bathing, sea air and general sense of enjoyment now prevailing at the Argentine Brighton, Mar del Plata, has imbued some of the visitors there with such a booming notion of the future of the place that many of them say it will eclipse La Plata and rapidly develop into a great city and port. In a couple of hundred years perhaps.

THE DIPPING SEASON.

Under the above heading, the following appears in a recent exchange:—

"Speaking of Dips themselves, perhaps the most significant feature in their "History is the way that the Old-fashioned have been superseded by the more "Modern and Scientific preparations. As Tobacco gave place to the various "Fluids" "and these again to the "Powders" so we find to-day these latter retiring before the "new Paste Dips. Of the many recent experiments we have witnessed in England and "the Colonies, the most successful were with an Arsenical Paste, manufactured by "Tomlinson and Hayward, of Lincoln, a firm that has always been noted for keeping "abreast of the times."

"The advantages of the Paste over the "Powders" are many:—

"It does not make the wool dry and harsh, but leaves it soft and silky, giving a "healthy sweet smell to the sheep. Being, so to speak, already mixed, it is easier to "prepare there, being no waste nor loose "Powders," to fly about.

"As it is prepared with Carbolic it is lighter than the "Powders" and does not "so readily settle to the bottom, and for the same reason it is not injurious to the "hands. It goes in less space and is a more concentrated form than the "Powders." "thus effecting an economy in transport and labour. It costs less, and will mix with "any kind of water. In a word, it is the "Powders," cleared of their many inherent "defects, with their curative properties and good qualities preserved and increased. "Until the manufacturers make some better discovery

EXCHANGE RATES—

England	15¼d.
France	1.60 fcs.
Germany	1 29½ marks
Gold equivalent	312.00

Saturday, January 17th.

Matters on 'Change to-day continued to reflect improvement, and on such a scale that it seemed as if the market had been touched by a magic wand. Exchange was quoted as high as 48¼d. and 5.10 fcs. gold, and at 15¼d. and 1.60 francs paper, giving a gold equivalent of say 312, which, of course, put the price of gold in the exchange shops down to 318, at which several sales were effected. This fall in gold and rise in exchange did not come as a surprise. It was noted that for some days past there have been very few takers of exchange and a plethora of drawers, so much so that a leading firm in the wool business has been forced to rest on its oars, being unable to place its exchange. The consequence has been a rapid rise in rates, and it seems that exchange must rule high unless gold be imported or new credits be opened abroad. Even in stocks the improvement was notable. National Bank shares were in brisk demand and closed hard at 104.50, whilst Catalinas rose to 20 and closed at 19.80. Cedulas were rather weaker, but this is attributed to the uncertainty about the Conversion Scheme and the rather blunt declaration of parties supposed to know, that if the scheme falls through the service of the coupons will have to be suspended. This Cedula business is, in fact, one of the gloomiest features of the outlook, and nobody can imagine how it will end.

The following is a summary of operations effected this afternoon during the first ring:—

It was reported to-day that the Provincial Bank has received during the week no less than 3 millions in fresh deposits, which would seem to shew that Dr. Lopez' bills are beginning to take effect already. An evening colleague, however, announces that the Minister and the bankers have come to an arrangement by which, mediating a loan of 10 million dollars paper, the former has confessed his willingness to suspend the putting in force of the 2 o/o tax, and even though this settles the whole question at once and leaves the banks almost on the same footing as before, it does not follow that even should the arrangement fall through there will be any great drain on the private banks. Time alone can tell this, but it seems, judging from the attitude of merchants in general, that the clause will not have the great effect so confidently expected by the Minister.

The great movement in produce during the week has flooded the market with exchange, and rates have advanced so rapidly that many first-class drawers had to retire, being unwilling to draw at such rates. Some exchange brokers say that soon the gold rate will be 49d., but it must be always remembered that owing to many causes, takers are very particular and credits have been so restricted abroad that many of the private banks decline taking, and hence it is that so little exchange is passed.

According to the reading of the new tax law on the banks, as sent by the Committee to the Senate, the private banks with local capital and local board of directors will not have to pay any tax whatever on their dividends or profits, but they will be always subject to the two per cent tax on deposits.

The scarcity of good investing stock in this market is now beginning to be felt; people no longer invest in Cedulas or National Bank shares or Catalinas. Some purchases were made to day of shares of the 'Banco de Nacionaly Rio de la Plata' at 1.35 gold, and it is probable that all good private local bank stock in this market will now be in demand, as in fact in the only stock left. People who have their money deposited for fixed terms in the private banks hitherto got 5 per cent. per annum, but henceforward these depositors will only get 3 per cent owing to the 2 per cent tax; much of such money will therefore find its way into bank stock, and the shares of the Banco de Italia stand amongst the first and best in the market.

The re-election of Sr. Marsan to the important post of Bolsa liquidator is a merited compliment to this deservedly popular gentleman. The Bolsa never had a better liquidator than Sr. Marsan, whose great experience renders him the most eligible for so important a post.

The Provincial Bank to-day refused to receive the quarterly interest and amortization on the Cedulas for debtors, stating that the office for that purpose closed on the 15th inst. This is a very great inconvenience, as it necessitates parties going out to La Plata to pay up, and we trust the president of the Mortgage Bank will, in view of the great crisis through which the market is passing, order the office here to be reopened, so as to save mortgagors the expense of going to La Plata.

The Royal Mail steamer Thames leaves on Wednesday, 21st inst. Mr. Mackill, of Glasgow, leaves in her, as also Mr. Crampton, of Dublin, who has large properties in this country.

Last night's rain though light was pretty general all over the province and brightened up the quintas wonderfully. A good deal of rain is still required.

Matters were rather dull at the second hour and there was no change in quotations, National Bank shares closing at 104.50 and 105.50 end of month, Constructors at 9.80 and Catalinas at 20. Some exchange was reported at 5.08 frs. Paris, whilst gold was freely offered at 317, buyers holding out for 316.50. In Cedulas very little was done, and rates still held rather weak.

Mr. Paterson lost 1900 Catalinas Mole shares in the Bolsa yesterday. He laid them aside on a table for a moment and afterwards withdrew without them. Shortly after he returned, but the shares were gone, and neither sign nor tidings of them left. Some of the numbers are as follows: 7873, 1865, 643, 447, 7867, 868, 912, 99 and 9375. Taken at to-day's price the loss makes a difference of $38,000 m/n to Mr. Paterson.

The French Mail packet Matapan has arrived in Montevideo and mails come up to-night.

The s.s. Paraguay, which left Montevideo on 21st December, arrived in Havre on the 12th inst.

We beg to call attention to an advertisement in the usual column offering to "almaceneros" and "registreros" splendid deposits in front of the port. These deposits are well-known as the Talleres de la Casa Amarilla. They are provided with double tram and railway connections, and should be most suitable from their admirable situation. Application can be made to Mr. Miles, either in the Bolsa or at the Casa Amarilla.

It is reported that the Catalinas Company and the Government have come to an arrangement by which the former will be allowed to keep standing their mole in the North Darsena until it has laid its lines and fixed its cranes on the outer wall, where later on all loading and discharging operations will be effected. This is a great gain to the company, as but for this arrangement it would have to start immediately demolishing the mole.

The National Bank has collected the coupons on its Cedulas in deposit, protesting against the 20 o/o shave exacted by the Mortgage Bank. It seems also that many of the mortgagors now refuse to pay their quarterly service unless a 20 o/o reduction is made, relying on the clause of the law of Nov. 1871, which says that the interest to be paid by the debtors shall be the same as that marked on the Cedulas, and as they hold that the 20 o/o is not a tax but a reduction of interest on the Cedulas, they join issue with the Provincial Government on the point. With protests becoming so general, the difficulties in the path of the Conversion Scheme seem to be increasing apace.

The National Government issued yesterday the decree naming the market Judges, for the current year, as follows:

Once market: Judge, Eugene Armengaud; substitute No 1, J Ellordi; substitute No 2, Ubaldo Garcia.

Wolseley Sheep Shearing Machine Company, limited.

Cabaña del Rincon,
Propiedad del Señor Don Tomas Bell,
Estacion Pereira, 18th Sept. 1890

Messrs. Agar Cross & Co.

Dear Sirs,

I have great pleasure in reporting favourably of your "Wolseley Sheep Shearing Machine." Up to date we have shorn upwards of 300 Lincoln Rams and Borregas, and find it quite up to our expectations. It is simple and easily handled, and in no way complicated or difficult to understand or work, and so far it has never been out of order. It shears the sheep beautifully: it does them quicker and considerably better than it is possible to get them done by hand, and saves the poor animal a great amount of abuse.

I have timed our Amateur Shearer here, and find he can shear upwards of eight in the hour. Consequently, I consider the Wolseley Machine one of the best patents I have yet seen, in proof of which I intend having some more put up at an early date.

Yours very truly,
WILLIAM RIDDICK.
